Quarter 4, 2015

Dear Skip,

Greetings from Xplor Headquarters! We have been incredibly busy getting everything together for Xploration 16, so here's a quick recap of what has been going on:

- Conference website is up and registration is now open!
- Call for Presentations has ended and we have received about double the amount of presentations we need to fill. A big thanks to everyone who applied!
- The First Timer Recognition Program is moving along and we have accepted a few dozen applications to date!
- Our new registration option, the Platinum Passport Package, is available now and allows you to couple your hotel with your conference pass starting at only $999

In addition to all the conference items, I am happy to report that the Xplor USA Region had a successful one-day meeting in Charlotte, NC at the Wells Fargo facility. A big thank you to Wells Fargo and the event lunch sponsor, Ricoh!

Finally, the EDP Commission would like your help. They are trying to gather information regarding industry certification through a brief survey.

That's all for now! Thank you for being part of the Xplor Community.
